

Planning Commission Meeting Schedule- Lake County, Oregon

The Planning Commission typically convenes on the third Tuesday of each month at 6 P.M. in the Commissioners Workroom at the Lake County Courthouse. As the Planning Commissioners are volunteers who reside throughout the County, there may be instances when the meeting dates are modified due to weather, illness or other personal commitments. If a meeting date is changed, the Planning Department will make every effort to notify the parties involved.

The Planning Commission meeting dates are shown in the following table. Please note that the table also identifies application submittal cut-off dates together with an estimated date for notice publication.

Applications must be complete prior to scheduling of the item for review by the Planning Commission.

Applications submitted prior to the cut-off date will be evaluated for completeness to ensure that there is enough information and detail to enable the Planning Commission to render a decision. If an application is deemed incomplete, Lake County will not be able to schedule the matter with the Planning Commission regardless of when the application is submitted. For an instance where an application is deemed incomplete, Lake County will respond in writing within thirty (30) days with an explanation specifying the deficiencies. Once an application is deemed complete by Lake County, Oregon's 120-day rule becomes effective and the matter will be scheduled for the next available Planning Commission meeting.
